

PENJAHAME DISTRICT AWARDS DINNER

South Maple United Methodist Church

April 8th, 2010

Steve and Yancey receiving the Daniel Carter Beard Masonic Scouter Award.

PENJAHAMME District held their annual awards night on April 8th at the South Maple United Methodist Church with a potluck dinner. District Activity Chair Yancey Smith was the master of ceremony and started with the chaplain from Troop 1187 giving the invocation. After a great meal District Director Frank Moser address the gathering and made announcements for the upcoming events; Spring Product Sales, Spring Camporee, 100-year Plant a Tree, 100-year Swim Challenge. Yancey Smith introduced the Grand Master of Masons in South Dakota, Jack H. Welker, to present two special awards. Steven Chase, Scoutmaster of Troop 74, and Yancey Smith, Scouter from Troop 1187, were presented The Daniel Carter Beard Masonic Scouter Award. District Director Frank Moser presented the District Award of Merit to Janet Keegan from Venture Crew 007 and Pete Jerzak from Troop 88. Advancement Chair Ron Nordell recognized Jeff Sugrue and Charles Morgan for earning their Boy Scout Leaders Training Award. Cindy George was presented the Webelos Award. Kevin George and Rod Brown were presented the Cub Master Award. Ron Nordell was presented the Scoutmaster Award of Merit, Scoutmaster's Key Award, Scoutmaster Trainer Award, Webelos Award and 35-year Boy Scout Service Pin.

Cindy George

Kevin George

Rod Brown

Ron Nordell

Janet Keegan receiving her District Award of Merit (second award) and Pete Jerzak receiving his District Award of Merit. Congratulations on a job well done!

Council Executive Jim Bethel gives closing remarks.

Members of the District Committee